Dear Bill:

I am writing again to request an update on the Commission's review of the FOIA request we submitted on February 25, 2019. My clients would sincerely appreciate some response to my inquiries regarding timing for action on their request.

Sincerely,
David

Dear Mr. Knowles-Kellett:

Pursuant to your email of March 22, 2019, I hereby submit the attached response to T-Mobile's request that information responsive to the February 25, 2019 FOIA request be withheld from disclosure. Given the size of the attachments, I would request confirmation from the Commission and counsel for T-Mobile that the materials have been received.

Sincerely,
David

Ms. Ham—

Good morning. On February 25, 2019, G. David Carter from Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP filed the attached Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") request with the Commission. The request seeks access to the documents obtained and considered by the Commission in an investigation of T-Mobile's conduct. Specifically, Mr. Carter seeks access to the documents that led to the Consent Decree issued on April 16, 2018 and reports filed by T-Mobile.

Section 0.461(d)(3) of the Commission's Rules provides that if a FOIA request seeks records that are the subject of a pending request(s) for confidentiality submitted to the Commission by a third party, the FOIA request must be provided to the third party for comment. T-Mobile is hereby provided with a copy of the instant FOIA request. If T-Mobile has any objection to the release of the requested materials, it shall submit a detailed written statement within ten calendar days of the date of this letter specifying all grounds for withholding any portion of the information requested. T-Mobile shall serve a copy of its response on Mr. Carter, who shall then have ten calendar days within which to submit a written reply. Mr. Carter shall serve any such reply on T-Mobile.

Both T-Mobile and Mr. Carter should direct their responses electronically to William Knowles-Kellett at william.knowles-kellett@fcc.gov, Jocelyn Frye at jocelyn.frye@fcc.gov, and Alex Espinoza at Alex.Espinoza@fcc.gov.
